Nonprofit Spotlight:

Mayo Home for Youth Development

Reaching Out, Changing Lives

With a goal to make a positive impact on clients, Mayo Home for Youth Development (MHYD) opened its doors in 2001 and provides Group Home and Counseling services to the community. They work with kids, teens, adults and families with varying degrees of mental health, substance use and behavioral concerns. Team members are skilled, professional and compassionate. With an ability to relate, MHYD goes above and beyond to provide clients a safe therapeutic environment, connect them to additional resources, build a sense of empowerment where they can fully embrace their identity, and gain the skills they need to be independent and confident. By creating this base foundation of support MHYD believes clients are on a path for success. (Licensed by ODJFS, OHMHAS and CARF Accredited).

MHYD has been a OneSource Center member for 10 years. Our Shoppers' Club program has enabled them to save money on products and furnishings so they can direct funding to better serve their clients. We are proud to support them as they make a positive impact in our community!

New OneSource Center Services

Volunteer and Donor Management Tools Available

OneSource Center is offering a five-session boot camp training for Salesforce to focus on the volunteer or donor management modules. While Salesforce can be quite complex, our consultants have developed and piloted an offering to make it accessible and useful for even small nonprofits. In addition to learning the program, instructions for importing data and getting the framework set up for your nonprofit is included. The sessions will be late May-early July so plan ahead now. Contact Vickie Ciotti if interested in learning more.

April 21 Building Blocks Workshop: Leadership Rehab: Back to the Basics

Presenter: Elisha Hill

9 a.m.-Noon

Register

Employees in today's workforce are facing tremendous amount of pressure to be productive and progressive during turbulent times. At the helm of these challenges are leaders struggling to navigate their own psychological safety, trust, and biases as well as role model for their team. In this interactive session, leaders will learn how to leverage basic principles, such as power, love, and self-discipline, to help shift their employees from surviving to thriving.

Presenter for this workshop is Elisha Hill, an HR practitioner whose background spans both the nonprofit and retail sectors. For the last four years, she organized and managed leadership development programs at both Cincinnati Children's Hospital and Christ Hospital. She also developed diversity and inclusion training for leaders and staff. Prior to her move to the nonprofit sector, she spent nine years managing leadership programs and operations for Macy's. Elisha is also a OneSource Center Consultant. Need more information? Visit the OneSource Center Training Page.
