Poverty to Opportunity

An interesting resource if your agency works on issues of poverty.

The Opportunity Atlas

Which neighborhoods in America offer children the best chance to rise out of poverty?

The Opportunity Atlas answers this question using anonymous data following 20 million Americans from childhood to their mid-30s.

Now you can trace the roots of today's affluence and poverty back to the neighborhoods where people grew up.

See where and for whom opportunity has been missing, and develop local solutions to help more children rise out of poverty.

Video Grant Opportunity

SpotOn Productions, a Cincinnati-based video production company, is offering its second Nonprofit Video Grant.

Sometimes nonprofit budgets can make it hard for you to share your story in a compelling way and SpotOn Productions wants to change that! They will provide one 501(c)3 nonprofit organization with a compelling video to share your unique story...at no cost to you!

In 2018, they received 32 applications for their inaugural Nonprofit Video Grant. The 2018 grant recipient, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Butler County, now has a video that helped them recruit more than 50 new volunteers committed to helping improve the lives of local children.

Applications are due by 5:00 pm on Friday, January 11, 2019. Application information can be found on their website.

Please address any questions to videogrant@spoton.productions or to Ian Murray at 513-779-4223.

Featured Training

The "Ins and Outs" of Diversity and Inclusion

NOTE: Starting with the January 2019 offering, OneSource Center's "Building Blocks" monthly seminars will be held at OneSource Center's spacious and beautifully appointed Park 42 Conference Center in Sharonville, just minutes from the Sharonville 275 exit.

Presentation Details: Learn how to develop processes and support behaviors that underscore the important topics of diversity and inclusion in your organization – steps that can create a positive environment and impact on your corporate culture, employees and consumers. The session will include clear definitions of diversity and inclusion, and help attendees identify the work that needs to be done for your organization to understand and recognize how unconscious bias and other behaviors create barriers for an inclusive environment. The workshop will increase awareness of how everyone can appreciate and accept all dimensions of diversity.

Presenter: Gail Manley is Director of Diversity and Inclusion with Fidelity Investments where she coaches 150 Employee Resource Groups globally, presenting diversity curricula to all levels of leadership. She also serves as a debrief facilitator and coach to Fidelity senior management. Gail is best known for her leadership development programs, diversity training, coaching skills and for her expertise in talent management and relationship building. Gail is an active participant in the Cincinnati USA Regional Chamber where she had a leading role in shaping "Diverse by Design" programming. She also sits on the CONNECT Senior Leader Council, developed training materials for Regional Youth Education, and is a coach for women who re-enter the workplace at Dress for Success.

Date: Thursday, February 21, 2019 9-12 Noon

NEW Location: Held at OneSource Center's Park 42 Conference Center, 3630/3640 Park 42 Drive, Sharonville. Once inside building, follow signs to Park 42 Conference Center.

Bonus: All seminar attendees are eligible to shop and to receive a 10% discount coupon to visit our warehouse after the seminar.
