OneSource Center Nonprofit News

January 2023

Together We Build a Thriving Community for All!

New Membership Benefits at OneSource Center!

On January 10 we held our Membership Virtual Info Session for all current and prospective OneSource Center members. During the session we explained our new membership tiers and all the exciting new and improved benefits of being a OneSource Center member. If you were unable to attend the session please click here to watch a recording.

In 2023 we are looking forward to all the ways OneSource Center can help your nonprofit, and the entire Greater Cincinnati Nonprofit Community succeed. That is why we have added some enticing never-before-seen membership benefits. Some of these benefits include a free “nonprofit checklist” organizational assessment (Valued at $1,200). In addition, our premium members will also receive a free “financial checklist” (Valued at $750). These are just two of the ways being a OneSource member pays for itself! Health insurance, retirement plans, Coursera course licenses and more - check it out!

For more information and to sign up for a OneSource Center Membership please visit the Membership Details tab on our website.

For questions regarding memberships please contact Beth Yantek, Membership Coordinator, at byantek@onesourcectr.org. For questions regarding consulting or organizational assessments please reach out to Amanda Lynn Barker, Director of Consulting Services, at abarker@onesourcectr.org.

Benefits Fair

With all the new benefits that OneSource Center is offering, we will have a Benefits Fair where you can learn more while also enjoying light refreshments and network with other nonprofit leaders. Representatives from Assured Partners (health insurance agent) and Ameriprise/Fidant Wealth Partners (retirement plan), GE Credit union, and others will be there along with OneSource Center staff to answer questions. Join us!

On The Move Greater Cincinnati Nonprofit Executive Changes

2023 has already proven to be a year of change and growth for the Greater Cincinnati Nonprofit Community. Three local Nonprofit companies have recently undergone staffing changes.

Libby Hunter (top left), who led the creative youth organization WordPlay Cincy since 2012, left her role Jan. 5. She will become executive director of Adventure Crew, a nonprofit dedicated to connecting city teens in Greater Cincinnati with nature through outdoor activities, effective Jan. 9.

YWCA Greater Cincinnati has appointed a new president and CEO. The downtown-based nonprofit's board of directors appointed Rickell Howard Smith (top right) as president and CEO, effective Feb. 1. She is the first African American leader of the organization.

City Gospel Mission has named Jonathan Brown (bottom) as its president. Brown, who most recently served as Cincinnati Public Schools' director of school leadership, employee and labor relations, is the first Black president in City Gospel Mission's 98-year history. He takes over for Roger Howell, who is stepping down as the organization's leader after 30 years.

To read more about these professionals you can visit the Cincinnati Business Courier.

We want to recognize the exciting changes happening within the nonprofits in our community and also offer a helping hand. Remember that OneSource Center has a team of capable consultants available to help with your executive search needs. Challenge No. 4: Resiliency

Meet our Common Good Store Staff

Beth Yantek, Membership Coordinator, is most likely a familiar face if you're already a OneSource Center nonprofit member. She is always here with a smile; ready to help with any of your Common Good Store needs, in both our Furniture Bank and Marketplace. Beth has recently adopted the more-encompassing role of membership coordinator. She will be here to facilitate all your membership questions and any needs you may have. To contact Beth, you may call 513-554-4944 or email her at byantek@onesourcectr.org.

Below are the faces you may see when visiting us in our Common Good Store, or when scheduling a pickup or delivery. We are excited to formally welcome them all to the OneSource Center team and recognize that we couldn't do it without them!

Welcome Ruben Irons, Warehouse Supervisor and Truck driver extraordinaire. He is our newest associate and a very valuable asset!

Rueben coordinates donor pickups and customer deliveries. We are happy to have him on our team.

Welcome Chris Lewis, Warehouse Associate. Chris has just recently moved to Cincinnati and has found a new home with us. Chris is helping customers as he builds, moves, and brings new products into the warehouse. We are grateful to have him on our team.

Welcome Mary McCartt, Merchandising Associate. You've likely seen Mary with a big smile on her face while organizing the Common Good Store, and filling our racks with products. We are thankful for her, and recognize that we wouldn't be able to function without her.

Upcoming Workshop

Conflict Resolution Workshop

Tuesday, January 31, 2023

9:00 AM to 11:30 AM EST

Greater Cincinnati Foundation - River Room

720 E. Pete Rose Way Suite 120

Cincinnati, OH 45202

Presented by: Elaine Dickhoner and Janna Kessler, from the Greater Cincinnati Resolution Program

Did you know the average worker spends 2.8 hours dealing with conflict each week? How much is conflict costing your organization? How can you, as a leader, help to lower the cost? This hands-on program will present some of the most common causes of conflict in the workplace today, and how you can identify and work towards solving them. Participants will learn and practice skills to use in managing conflict. Participants will also learn how to determine the level of conflict, and where to find additional resources for solving more complex problems.
