Nonprofit Spotlight Karen Wellington Foundation

We are proud to offer top-notch strategic planning services to nonprofits throughout Greater Cincinnati. By utilizing volunteer consultants who have professionally helped develop business plans for some of Cincinnati's finest corporate and small businesses, we can help nonprofits do more.

Last year our consultants developed a strategic plan for the Karen Wellington Foundation that has allowed the organization to grow and expand to support women who have been impacted by breast cancer in chapters across the country.

The executive director of one of our collaborating partners – Cincinnati Toolbank – Kat Pepmeyer, was a recent recipient of a trip, courtesy of the Karen Wellington Foundation, after being diagnosed with breast cancer last year.

News Nonprofits Can Use

Music to Combat Isolation

The Power of Music (POM®) seeks to improve the lives of people who are isolated or detached from the broader community – e.g., people seeking shelter, people seeking medical care, and people in senior or residential living facilities – by connecting with them and bringing them the warmth and collegiality of live, in-person music performed by high school students.

Building Blocks "Firing Up Your Fundraising" Thursday, March 17, 9 a.m. - noon

How is your organization handling its fund development in 2022? Has the COVID pandemic made it harder or easier for your organization to raise money? Here are some of the topics that we will address in this fundraising workshop.

- How to align your fundraising to your mission
- How to involve your Board in fundraising
- How to solicit and maintain donors
- How to maximize special event fundraisers
- How to get help with grant writing
- Should you start a social enterprise to create earned revenue?
- When should you consider hiring a development person?

Presenter for this workshop is Robert Killins, Jr., who is the Director of Special Initiatives at Greater Cincinnati Foundation where he attracts and stewards donors for the foundation.

More information is available on the OneSource Center Training Page.
