Nonprofit Networking Round Table

Calling Executive Directors and Senior Management

It takes a village! And that's especially true in the nonprofit sector. Hear from leaders of some of the most effective nonprofits in our region on their success strategies, the importance of collaborating and networking to enhance your value proposition, expanding your capacity, and how to better serve your clients.

This session will give you the opportunity to:

- Ask some of the tough questions of nonprofit experts who've been there
- Meet others like yourself and determine if there are ways you might work together to benefit each of your nonprofits

A continental breakfast will be served while you listen and engage with these expert panelists who will share their wisdom.

Date/Time: Wednesday, March 29 from 10 AM to 12 PM

Location: Greater Cincinnati Foundation Offices, 720 E Pete Rose Way Ste 120, in the Mashburn River Room

Emcee: Rob Reifsnnyder, retired CEO of United Way

Panelists:

- Debbye Allsop, retired Executive Director of Families Forward
- Jim Mason, retired President & CEO of Beech Acres Parenting Center
- Bob Mecum, retired Executive Director of Lighthouse Youth Services, Inc.
- Linda Neenan, retired Executive Director of iSPACE

11 Things Organized and Productive People Do Every Day

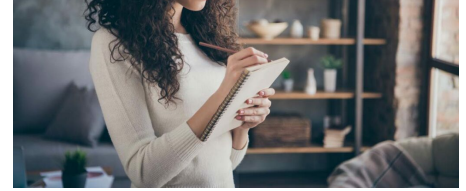

(sourced from APP, written by Thomas Bradberry)

Here are some helpful tips on how to become an even more productive professional! The first three tips are listed below, and the rest can be found in the article linked below.

1. An organized person doesn't have clutter on their desks.
2. They never touch things twice.
3. They don't respond to emails as they arrive.

women of cincy

Happy Women's History Month!

During this Women's History Month, consider checking out this local women-focused nonprofit.

Women of Cincy is a nonprofit media organization dedicated to creating more connected, empathetic, inclusive communities by centering the diverse voices that make up the fabric of our city. They work towards a more welcoming and inclusive community and shedding light on the important work being done by women in our area.

"We are creators, storytellers, and community activators. We are people of all identities who believe that when we uplift women, we uplift everyone. We are founded on respect, diversity, and purposeful disruption. We put empathy to work."

National Nonprofit News

Grants: Giving Circles Providing Punch from The NonProfit Times

Traditional philanthropy has been rocked the past few years by demands for transparency, calls to increase diversity in staffing and grant making, and has been challenged to step decisively away from business-as-usual and aggressively into the mission.

Foundations have responded to different degrees and on different timelines ranging from deep and quick to shallow and slow. Some are taking decisive action, but others continue to deliberate, wring their hands, and tweak their old systems.

From Scarcity to Inspiration: Rethinking the Value of Nonprofit Facilities

by Joe Neri from Nonprofit Quarterly

Nonprofit facilities communicate, and we need to be more conscious, thoughtful, and vocal about what they say about who and what our organizations value. A dilapidated and dysfunctional facility communicates that the work conducted inside it is unimportant, the people served deserve no better, and the surrounding neighborhood is forgotten and forsaken.

In contrast, a facility with functional—even beautiful—design sends a clear, edifying message to its occupants, visitors, and the neighborhood that they are important, with intrinsic value and a realizable vision of hope.

Partnering with the Flying Pig Marathon

We're excited to be a partner charity for the 2023 Flying Pig Marathon, its 25th year running! Through this partnership we get some great perks, like a discount code for our supporters to use. The code provides a 25% discount at the time a person registers for their event. Please email mlemasters@onesourcectr.org to get access to the discount code. This discount code can be used for the Flying Fur, 5K, 10K, Open Relay, Half Marathon, Full Marathon, 3-Ways & 4-Ways. The code is active until online registration closes on Wednesday, May 3, or until an event is sold out. Consider OneSource as a way to save on your registration fee and donate the difference back to us!

Support OneSource Center-Cincinnati style! Make a donation to the Piggest Raffle Ever, and 100% of that ticket will go to OneSource. Through your contribution to OneSource Center, together we can continue to assist the Greater Cincinnati nonprofit community.

We appreciate all of your support and are excited to partner with Flying Pig Marathon! Together we build a thriving community for all.

5-week Salesforce Boot Camp

Dates: May 8, 10, 15, 17 and 22, 1-5 PM; In-person

Are you ready to more effectively manage your supporter relationships? CRM software allows us as nonprofits to better organize our data to streamline communication with our volunteers, partners, and donors. This saves us time and also creates a more efficient and effective fundraising pipeline so that we can focus more energy on our service in the community.

OneSource Center is offering an exclusive Salesforce Bootcamp in May for no more than five (5) Cincinnati and NKY area nonprofits who are ready to invest in their operational capacity. The Bootcamp will include 10 Salesforce licenses and 25 hours of expert training for up to ten participants from each organization to learn basic fundamentals and a few advanced functionalities.

Sessions will include:

- Introduction to Salesforce
- Salesforce Volunteer Management
- Salesforce Development Management
- Salesforce Basic Admin tool
- Reports

Presenters: Alan Schussheim and Jane Muindi
Application deadline is April 21
Fee: $3,500
