OneSource Nonprofit News

October 2018

Welcome to the new OneSource Nonprofit News, replacing the ReSource monthly newsletter. Find upcoming events, announcements and other news. Share your announcements with us by emailing our Newsletter editor.

Meet our New Staff

Vickie Ciotti has recently joined the OneSource staff as Director of Consulting Services. Vickie is an accomplished executive with proven ability in managing projects and volunteers. Her most recent position was Executive Director of the Civic Garden Center (14 years) and before that she worked as a Director with Wyoming Youth Services. Vickie is very familiar with the nonprofit community.

Please join us in giving Vickie a warm welcome!

You'll see our new Warehouse Associate, John Brinkman, working in the warehouse stocking shelves, moving furniture and assisting customers.

John has been with us since September and has already learned where all the treasures can be found in the warehouse.

If you need help in the warehouse, just ask John!

Pillar Awards

Here is an opportunity for nonprofits to recognize corporate sponsors and supporters, great board leaders, outstanding executive directors and philanthropists who have supported your nonprofit's mission!

Multiple Pillar awards are given to recognize different areas -- from corporate support to individual corporate leaders; nonprofit Executive Directors to community philanthropists.

Event Décor Featured in Warehouse

Stop by and check out a special exhibit at OneSource the week of October 15 - 19. OneSource's extensive offering of event décor is highlighted in the warehouse for the next week following a successful Open House on October 11. Robin Shropshire, décor volunteer, has set up themed displays to showcase how offerings can be used. This service is free to members of the OneSource Warehouse Shopper's Club, and nonmembers are charged a nominal fee for rental. Centerpieces, vases, theme items and more are available. OneSource is here to help!

Download our Event Décor Catalog for more information and to see items that are available. Several photos of seasonal displays were featured on the OneSource Facebook page. Have you checked out our Facebook page? Be sure to "like" it to receive OneSource updates!

A Day of Respite at Camp Joy

Camp Joy has heard the need for support to nonprofit organizations dealing with secondary trauma so often associated with mission-driven work. Camp Joy's Venture Out! Team is offering a one-day program designed specifically to help nonprofit professionals address secondary trauma through awareness, effective communication, and team-based support techniques. Professional facilitators will guide participants through an exploration of responses to vicarious trauma, experiences designed to help nonprofit professionals ask for support and in turn to provide it to colleagues as well.

Featured Training

How to Ask for Major Gifts

Presentation details: Understanding the motivations of major gift prospects and donors is the foundation of a strong major gift program. This session will highlight applicable research of high net worth households and apply that research to secure major gifts for your organization. The interactive session will include tips and guidance on “making the ask”, from getting the appointment through asking for and stewarding the gift. Gain insight into trends in donor motivation, discuss strategies to improve gift cultivation, solicitation and activities to capture more dollars for your mission. Learn how giving decisions are made with high net worth donors.

Presenter: Angela E. White, CFRE and CEO of Johnson, Grossnickle and Associates (JGA) a philanthropic consulting firm that focuses on the concepts of mission, strategy, and accountability. Angela is a member of the faculty at The Fundraising School at the Lilly Family School of Philanthropy at Indiana University and often presents on behalf of the Women’s Philanthropy Institute. In 2012, Angela was recognized as a Women of Influence honoree by the Indianapolis Business Journal for her extensive work with Indianapolis-area nonprofits and her efforts to advance the understanding of women’s philanthropy.

November 14, 8:30-11:30 a.m. Held at Interact for Health, Rookwood Tower, 3805 Edwards Road, 5th Floor.

Don't Forget Our Service Offerings

Consulting Services

Warehouse shoppers may not be aware of the opportunity to get help through OneSource's consulting services. From the merger with Executive Service Corps, OneSource now has approximately 100 business professionals who can assist with things like strategic planning, board development, HR issues, and other business solutions -- all for a fraction of the cost of for-profit consultants. OneSource also provides individual coaching for executive and other leadership positions. Learn more on our website or fill out a Request for Assistance form for a free assessment. Grant assistance is available for agencies who cannot afford our discounted fees. To request help, complete our OneSource Consulting Grant Application form.

OneSource Warehouse/Marketplace

OneSource's product offerings are available to ALL nonprofits in the Greater Cincinnati area. As a OneSource Center, we want to be open to all who need help.

Our Warehouse/Marketplace offerings (office furnishings and supplies) are available to nonprofits that register for a OneSource Shopper's Club card.* (Think Sam's Club membership.) Without a OneSource Shopper's Card, the warehouse is open to all nonprofits on the last Wednesday of every month. (No annual fee to shop on this once-a-month Open Shopping Day.) Legacy ReSource members were automatically transferred to OneSource Shopper's Club status. Our next open shopping day is October 31.

*OneSource Shopper's Club membership fees are a great deal – based on a nonprofit's annual income. Most nonprofits make up their fee with money saved on their first purchase. See the membership application for more details.
