Darlyne is a public relations specialist. She also has a background in strategic planning and implementation across a broad spectrum of industries, including nonprofit agencies, financial services, electronics, manufacturing and material handling. Darlyne is the principal and founder of Tap Your Potential. Previously she served as Director of Marketing/PR for ESCC. Prior to that, she was a Communications Consultant with Fidelity Investments in Covington, KY. Earlier in her career, she ran her own PR consulting agency and was Manager of Corporate Public Relations for Litton Industries.

Volunteerism is very important to Darlyne. She is board chair of the ESC-US affiliate network. She also serves on the Communications Committee of Women Helping Women, as well as the Steering Committee of Safe & Supported, a program of Lighthouse Youth Services. Her past community activities include CASA for Pro Kids, Bethany House, Hospice of Northern Kentucky and STOP AIDS Board Secretary.
