

Susan Roschke

Volunteer Consultant
Consultant Since: 2012

OneSource

3610 Park 42 Drive
Cincinnati, OH 45241
Telephone: 513.554.4944

Professional History

- Cincinnati Works
- Simple Resilience, L.L.C.
- Colerain Township
- TEC Engineering

Education

- Ph.D., Sociology, Cornell University
- M.A., Sociology, Cornell University
- M.S., Urban and Regional Planning, Virginia Commonwealth University
- B.A., Sociology, St. Lawrence University

Professional Associations

- American Planning Association
- American Sociological Association

Susan is a city and regional planner with more than twenty-five years' experience. She currently is the Grants and Compliance Officer with Cincinnati Works. She also is the principal owner of Simple Resilience, L.L.C. Susan formerly taught sociology and behavioral science courses at the college level for a number of years.

Susan has long been committed to making her community a better place in which to live. She volunteers with the Tristate Medical Reserve Corps as part of the Leadership Team. She also heads up Team Duncan, a group of family and friends raising funds for autism-related charities. Susan is adept at using social media and both writes and edits text for the websites and Facebook pages of a number of organizations, including the Greater Cincinnati Regional-Social Enterprise Alliance and her church. Former volunteer activities include Sharing Hope, the Buddy Walk for Down Syndrome, and the Norwood Tree Board.

OneSource Experience

As ESCC's (the predecessor of OneSource) webmaster, Susan's expertise in information technology has been put to good use. She was assigned to projects at Boys Hope Girls Hope, St. Vincent de Paul, Wesley Community Services, and Tender Mercies, all of which made use of her strategic planning skills.