

Bob Wuerdeman

Volunteer Consultant
Consultant Since: 2009

OneSource

3610 Park 42 Drive
Cincinnati, OH 45241
Telephone: 513.554.4944

Professional History

- Procter & Gamble

Education

- M.E., Engineering, University of Cincinnati
- M.B.A., Management, Xavier University

Bob retired as Global Physical Distribution Project Manager of Procter and Gamble after devoting more than 37 years to the company. His primary areas of expertise are in program design and evaluation as well as in operations.

Bob is active in community activities. He volunteers with the Dan Beard Council, Boy Scouts of America; St. Timothy's Episcopal Church; and Great Parks of Hamilton County. He is also a member of the Financial Administration Committee of Changing Gears.

OneSource Experience

Bob's assignments have included one-on-one and small team mentoring for operations planning/improvement, strategic thinking/planning, personal/ organizational development and project management. He has led and worked on projects for the Cincinnati Public Schools, Free Store Food Bank, Great Parks of Hamilton County, and Talbert House. Bob has been a coach in the Nonprofit Leadership Institute and EXCEL.