Most recently a trainer and technical consultant with Thomson West, Doug previously worked as a program specialist with NASA in Washington, D.C. Both positions relied on his legal, regulatory, and business expertise.

OneSource Experience

As a volunteer, Doug facilitated a board retreat for the Dayton Christian Center. Impressed by his skill set, he was invited to serve on its board following the conclusion of the project. Other projects include assignments with Wesley Community Services, Greater Cincinnati World Affairs Council, and St. Vincent de Paul. Doug is a trainer for OneSource and was instrumental in developing the curriculum for its workshop on stakeholder interviewing protocols.
