Lorna is a human resources specialist with more than 20 years' experience. She holds the position of HR Specialist with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. She is a mentor to new HR staff and participates in HR pilot projects for the judiciary. For many years she was the business manager at Oakley Square Animal Hospital. Lorna is particularly skilled in compensation and benefits review, performance management, and training and development.

Lorna has long been involved in community activities. She served as an Advisory Board member for Scarlet Oaks Veterinary Association and as a board member for the City of Sharonville Planning Commission. When the World Choir Games were held in Cincinnati, she both participated in the events and assisted in the call center. She currently is involved with the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce Diversity by Design Task Force.

OneSource Experience

The World Piano Competition benefited from Lorna's expertise as it worked on its staff development plan. She also assisted Wesley Community Services Organization with a staff assessment. Lorna was a consultant on HR and board development projects with Churches Active in Northside (CAIN). Most recently, she was part of the team that provided HR legal training to United Way of Greater Cincinnati. Lorna also works on HR related projects for OneSource.
