Nancy is a senior executive with more than fifteen years' experience in project management and custom research for global clients. She most recently held the position of Senior Vice President, Research Excellence with French-based Ipsos. Prior to Ipsos, she served as Vice President, Global Project Development at the Nielsen Company. Her responsibilities included budgeting, process improvement, resource integration, and talent management. Nancy's clients were in consumer packaged goods, pharmaceuticals, telecom, and durables. Nancy's expertise includes project implementation, strategic planning, performance management, team building, coaching, and training.

Recognizing the importance of work/life balance, Nancy opted to leave the paid workforce to focus on her school-age children. She continues to put her professional skills to use as a member of the Madeira City Council. She has headed standing committees for Budget and Economic Development. Nancy participates in the Madeira City Schools Parent-Teacher Organization, Madeira Farmer's Market Advisory Board, and is also active with youth sports programs.

OneSource Experience

As a new consultant, Nancy looks forward to using her skills to help local nonprofits effectuate broad organizational change.
