

Pat Seuberling

Volunteer Consultant
Consultant Since: 2014

OneSource

3610 Park 42 Drive
Cincinnati, OH 45241
Telephone: 513.554.4944

Professional History

- PPS Properties
- Princeton Education Foundation
- Wyoming School Foundation
- Women Helping Women
- Children's Home of Northern Kentucky

Education

- B.S., Management, Wilmington College
- A.A., Early Childhood Education, University of Evansville

Certification

- Planned Giving, Greater Cincinnati Planned Giving Council
- Volunteer Management, Volunteer Management Association
- Building Fundraising, IUPUI School of Fundraising

Pat is an accomplished nonprofit executive with more than twenty years' experience in leadership and development. Prior to starting up her own consultant company, she served as Director, Princeton Education Foundation. Directly before, she was Executive Director, Wyoming School Foundation.

Pat was cofounder of American Heritage Girls. In that role, she wrote the bylaws, designed the organization's infrastructure, oversaw leadership training and was involved in program development. Pat was a panel member for Leadership Council of Greater Cincinnati's workshop, "Trends in Nonprofits." Pat's other community commitment was as a volunteer with the Interfaith Hospitality Network of Northern Kentucky.

OneSource Experience

Pat planned, presented, and facilitated OneSource's consultant training workshops, "Essentials of Nonprofits" and "Board Development and Assessment." She has been a presenter and facilitator for custom-designed client workshops, including "Leveraging Your Strengths" for ProKids, "Effective Communication" for OCCA, the leadership development workshops for Planned Parenthood, and NLIGC's six-week ADVANCE. She was the project manager assigned to CAIN, CGM, and Arts League of Cincinnati. She has served on the project teams for Green Acres, Cancer Support Community, Learn 21 and World Piano Competition. She also is an EXCEL Coach.