Sheri is an experienced health care and nonprofit executive and consultant, with more than 30 years' experience in the field. She is Talent Management Advisor with the Jewish Federation of Cincinnati—Shared Business Services. Formerly, she was Vice President, Strategic Initiatives at the Visiting Nurse Association and Director of Quality/Transitions of Care with the Health Collaborative. Sheri's skills encompass strategic planning, collaborations, and program implementation.

Before moving to Cincinnati, Sheri volunteered with Jewish Vocational Services, City of Burbank Senior Services, and was a member of Pasadena Homeless Services. In addition, she was a board member with Mercy Neighborhood Ministries.

OneSource Experience

Soon after becoming a volunteer consultant, Sheri was appointed Co-Director of the Freestore Foodbank Leadership Institute. She also served as a coach in the program. She later was asked to help complete an organizational assessment for the Dominican Sisters. Sheri assisted with the Jewish Nonprofit Leadership Institute and was assigned as project manager for customized leadership development workshops for Planned Parenthood.
