Tom is an executive marketing and fund development specialist with nearly 30 years' crossover experience in both the private and nonprofit sectors. In January, 2018, he became Chief Executive Officer of the Warren County Foundation. Tom is the former Director, Corporation and Foundation Relations at the University of Cincinnati Foundation as well as former Vice President, Development of Ashland University in Ashland Ohio. As President, Nupath Technologies, LTD., he was responsible for management and sales for a start-up enterprise. His experience at Archway Cookies included serving as vice-president of marketing and special projects and operations.

Tom has long believed in giving back to the community through a variety of volunteer assignments. An active participant at Crossroads Church, he has been a development volunteer for the CityLink Center. He chaired a strategic planning process for the City of Ashland and Ashland County in Ohio. He helped establish the Ashland, Ohio Community Foundation and served as its first chair. He also was very involved with both the United Way and Chamber of Commerce in Ashland.
