As Xavier University's Vice President for Mission and Identity and Chief Mission Officer, Debra promotes the active engagement of the Xavier community. She also is the Founding Director of the Ruth J. and Robert A. Conway Institute for Jesuit Education. Debra's areas of expertise include coaching, mentoring, facilitation, and leadership development. One of her most recent publications, "Leading with Moxie: A 31-day Guide for Career Satisfaction and Success," provides a way for readers to journal and reflect on their leadership abilities.

Debra strongly supports empowering women in both her community and academic activities. She has designed and facilitated workshops for Google's Women in Health and Safety Group, the Cincinnati Network of Executive Women, and Women entrepreneurs associated with Aviatra Accelerators (formerly known as Bad Girl Ventures).

OneSource Experience

As a new volunteer Debra looks forward to assisting with OneSource Center's leadership workshops as well as serving as a coach.
