Art is a management specialist with expertise in executive coaching, strategic planning, marketing, and business development. Art joined OneSource after 16 years with Quaker Chemical, where he held the position of Director of Marketing and Strategic Planning. In addition to his own consulting practice, Art is a part owner of several small businesses.

Art's interests center around economic empowerment, environment, science and technology, and personal development. Art shares his expertise with the Service Corps of Retired Executives (SCORE), where he conducts web-based marketing training.

OneSource Experience

Art assisted in the integration of the marketing departments of the Jewish Community Center and the Jewish Federation of Cincinnati. He worked on a board governance and development project for a nonprofit in Dayton. He also is part of OneSource's training faculty, having facilitated a workshop on social media and marketing.
