

Fred Heyse

Volunteer Consultant

Consultant since: 2000

OneSource

936 Dalton Avenue
Cincinnati, OH. 45203
Phone: 513.791.6230

Professional History

- Procter & Gamble
- U.S. Navy

Education

- M.S., Management/Operations Research, Rensselaer Polytechnic
- B.S., Mathematics, Penn State University

Fred is a computer information system and work process improvement specialist. He retired from Procter & Gamble after more than 29 years of service.

Fred has extensive experience working with nonprofit organizations. He is past chair of the board of trustees for the Consumer Credit Counseling Service of the Midwest (Columbus, OH), and past chair of the board of directors, Family Service of Greater Cincinnati. He currently serves on the board of Greater Cincinnati Behavioral Health. Fred has also served on the boards of the League of Women Voters Education Fund and High Schools That Work of Southwest Ohio. Fred is active in local Anderson Township government committees and in his church.

OneSource Center

Fred is a past president of the Executive Service Corps of Cincinnati (ESCC). After it merged to become OneSource, he served on that board and headed up the Strategic Planning Committee. He facilitated the integration of nonprofit professional training between ESCC and Talbert House and oversaw a board development project at Camp Livingston. As a consultant, Fred has overseen information technology improvements, data analyses, board development, and strategic planning projects for Cincinnati Public Schools. Most recently, he headed a strategic planning project for Henry the Hand.