Jeff is a clinical psychotherapist whose employment experience spans both the for profit and nonprofit sectors. Prior to his retirement from TriHealth division of Corporate Health, he provided consultation, training and coaching to leaders and managers in for profit, nonprofit and municipal workplaces. His other responsibilities included managing Employee Assistant Programs for both large and smaller employers. He also provided supervisor training and assessments for employers to meet the requirements of the Federal Department of Transportation and the State of Ohio, BWC, Drug-Free Training Program. Prior to joining Tri-Health, Jeff was the Executive Director of Big Brothers/Big Sisters Association of Cincinnati. At Jewish Family Service, he was a member of the counseling staff.

As a volunteer, Jeff is heavily involved with Northern Hills Synagogue. He has served on the board of Jewish National Fund and several performing arts organizations including Cincinnati Folk Life and Louisville Homefront Performances. He also plays fiddle in the old-time string band, The Corncobs.

OneSource Experience

Jeff facilitated leadership workshops for both Talbert House and Planned Parenthood. He also facilitates OneSource's "Coaching for Change" workshop. He currently is EXCEL coach coordinator.
