

Mark Grote

Volunteer Consultant
Consultant Since: 2011

OneSource

936 Dalton Avenue
Cincinnati, OH 4503
Telephone: 513.554.4944

Professional History

- Art Academy of Cincinnati
- ESCC
- Grote Consultants, Inc.
- Procter & Gamble

Education

- B.S., Chemical Engineering, University of Notre Dame

Mark's expertise lies in research and development, strategic planning, diversity training, and organizational development. He spent nearly thirty years with Procter & Gamble in research and development, the last eleven years as a director

Mark serves on two nonprofit boards--Chatfield College, where he chairs the Planning and Marketing Committees, and the Art Academy of Cincinnati, where he currently is Interim President. He is a former board member of the Cincinnati Area Education Board, Archdiocese of Cincinnati (2000-2006) and of Artworks (2012-2015).

OneSource Experience

Mark was ESCC Interim Executive Director (the predecessor to OneSource). Prior to the assignment, he was an officer on ESCC's board of trustees. Mark has been the project leader and team member on strategic planning, business development, organizational development and coaching projects, including Henry the Hand, PARS, Great Parks of Hamilton County, Art Academy of Cincinnati, American Heritage Girls, STEM Collaboration of Cincinnati, The Jewish Foundation, St. Vincent de Paul, Taft Elementary School and College of Mt. St. Joseph.