

Lisa Kappesser

Volunteer Consultant

Volunteer Consultant Since 2021

OneSource

936 Dalton Avenue
Cincinnati, OH. 45203
Phone: 513.554.4944

Professional History

- EQ Coaching Solutions
- NVR, LLC
- Leadership Excelleration
- University of Cincinnati
- Right Management

Education

- M.A., Psychological Counseling, University of Notre Dame
- B.A., Psychology, Miami University

Certification

- Certified Career and Executive Coach, College of Executive Coaching (2006)
- Credentialed Coach (ACC), International Coach Federation, (2010)
- Licensed Social Worker, (L.S.W.), State of Ohio

Lisa is a talent management specialist and trainer, who partners with organizations to identify talent management needs and create solutions tailored to the needs of each organization. She is the president and founder of EQ Coaching Solutions, which focuses on cultivating emotional intelligence for work performance. She authored The Smart New Way to Get Hired: Use Your Emotional Intelligence to Land the Right Job. Lisa is a certified career and executive coach and is also trained to analyze results from a variety of personality assessments including Myers-Briggs. Lisa is a former adjunct professor to the Lindner College of Business at the University of Cincinnati and has special expertise in Organizational Behavior and Emotional Intelligence.

Lisa is passionate about sharing her expertise with the community. She is a member of the Greater Cincinnati Association of Talent Development and was their Organization Development Forum Leader for four years. She is a past volunteer with Circle Tail and the Cincinnati Zoo.

OneSource Experience

Lisa looks forward to assisting with talent management and leadership development projects.