Abijita is a Finance and HR Professional with more than 10 years' experience in both nonprofit and for-profit enterprises. Currently, she is Senior Director of HR and Payroll at the Cincinnati Museum Center. In her previous positions, she has been responsible for payroll, data management, and market research. To stay current with recent trends in talent management, Abijita has been certified in diversity, equity and inclusion. Her background also includes Retirement Plan Administration, Corporate Credit Card Administration and Benefits Administration.

Abijita believes in the importance of giving back to her community. Prior to moving to Cincinnati, she was a project manager and fund raiser for the Dallas-Ft. Worth chapter of ASHA for Education, which is a catalyst for social change through education for slum children throughout India. She also is a past member of AZAD, which empowers women living in poverty in India. Her other nonprofit activity has been with Vision Aid.

OneSource Experience

Abijita looks forward to working on business improvement projects.
