Christy combines leadership experience in both the education and corporate sectors. She began her career at Procter & Gamble, where she worked for 16 years as a research engineer, marketer, and product development manager. In 2013, she embarked on a new career in K-12 education. During the next five years, she worked as Director of Acceleration Zone Strategy & Operations in Washoe County, Nevada; Director of Planning and Improvement in Knox County, Tennessee; and as Director of Strategic Initiatives at Uncommon Schools, Rochester Prep. Christy loves solving complex problems and removing the barriers that prevent people from working at their best. Her skill set includes strategic planning, stakeholder engagement, needs assessments, data analysis, program design, and staff development.

Christy has volunteered with many organizations over the years. Some of her favorite volunteer experiences were serving as a rape crisis hotline volunteer with Women Helping Women, mentoring a middle schooler with Big Brothers Big Sisters, and building homes with Habitat for Humanity.

OneSource Center Experience

Christy became part of the Ursuline Academy strategic planning team to assist with data analysis. She also is an EXCEL coach.
