

Fred Heyse

Volunteer Consultant
Consultant since 2000

OneSource Center

936 Dalton Avenue
Cincinnati, OH 45203
Phone: 513.554.4944

Professional History

- Procter & Gamble
- U.S. Navy

Education

- M.S., Management/Operations
Research, Rensselaer Polytechnic
- B.S., Mathematics, Penn State University

Fred is a computer information system and work process improvement specialist. He retired from Procter & Gamble after more than 29 years of service.

Fred has extensive experience working with nonprofit organizations. He is past chair of the board of trustees for the Consumer Credit Counseling Service of the Midwest (Columbus, OH), and past chair of the board of directors, Family Service of Greater Cincinnati. He currently serves on the board of Greater Cincinnati Behavioral Health Services. Fred has also served on the boards of the League of Women Voters Education Fund and High Schools That Work of Southwest Ohio. Fred was active in local Anderson Township government committees and his church; he is currently active in Pierce Township affairs in Clermont County.

OneSource Center Experience

Fred is a past president of the Executive Service Corps of Cincinnati (ESCC). As a former trustee of the successor organization, OneSource Center, he headed up its Strategic Planning Committee. He facilitated the integration of nonprofit professional training between ESCC and Talbert House and oversaw a board development project at Camp Livingston. As a consultant, Fred has overseen information technology improvements, data analyses, board development, and strategic planning projects for Cincinnati Public Schools. He has also lead workshops on technology management and outcomes measurement. He is currently active as an EXCEL Coach and leader of projects.