John brings more than 40 years' experience as a manager, entrepreneur and strategist to OneSource Center. The co-author of "Raising Entrepreneurial Capital" and author of "The Entrepreneur's Fieldbook," John shares his expertise as a volunteer business counselor with SCORE, a resource partner of the Small Business Administration.

John has been a professor of Computer Science at the University of New Orleans and at Bentley University, and of Management at Tulane and Dillard Universities.

The company he founded in 1978, Tammany Supply, Inc., was named a Blue-Chip Enterprise by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce in 1994, and recognized for innovative use of technology ("The Wizardry of Tammany Supply") in the trade journal, Supply House Times. The company was sold to a regional chain in 1998.

OneSource Experience

John is the former webmaster for ESCC (OneSource's predecessor) and served on the Childhood Food Solutions project team. He also was assigned as a facilitator to the Planned Parenthood leadership development project.
