Larry combines financial expertise in both the private and governmental sectors. Now retired, he spent the last 30 years of his career as a CFO in the real estate development and hospitality industry. As CFO at Brandicorp, he oversaw a real estate portfolio exceeding $250 million. Prior to that, he worked for the Internal Revenue Service and in public accounting, with a special focus on taxation. Larry's skill set includes CFO mentoring, merger planning, lease negotiations as well as acquisition and disposition of portfolio assets.

Larry believes strongly in community engagement. He currently is the Board President of the Cornerstone Renter Equity Board. He serves on the Housing Our Future Steering Committee and is a member of the Cincinnati Association. He is a past board member of Episcopal Retirement Services. Larry is also the past chairman of the Freestore Foodbank Board. Other activities include Boy Scout adult leader, sports coach, and Terrace Park Labor Day Commissioner.

OneSource Center Experience

After becoming a consultant, Larry oversaw a process audit of OneSource. He subsequently led the team to find a new location for OneSource's operations. He assisted with product inventory in OneSource's warehouse and marketplace. He has been the project leader assigned to Wyoming Arts Center, Cincinnati Permaculture Institute, and Childhood Food Solutions.
