Education

- B.S., Business Management, Colorado State University-Pueblo

Randy is a sales and marketing professional. During his 31 years with Procter & Gamble, he developed expertise in customer business development, consumer promotion development, multi-discipline project management, sales training and national sales meeting planning and execution.

Randy enjoys many sports and spends half the year in Keystone, Colorado. He has held many nonprofit board positions and has volunteered with the Greater Cincinnati Tennis Association, Beech Acres Parenting Center, Junior Achievement, Aviatra, Cincinnati Youth Collaborative, and Sycamore Soccer Association.

OneSource Center Experience

Randy served on ESCC's (OneSource Center's predecessor) Board of Trustees from 2004-2011, the last two years of which he was Vice-President. Having been recruited as the first Volunteer Connections Coordinator, he now serves on OneSource's Volunteer Engagement Committee. Randy has led multiple strategic planning, board development, sales planning, market research, social enterprise, and leadership training projects. He currently is part of the NLIGC-ADVANCE faculty. Clients to which he has been assigned include The Visiting Nurse Association, Red Cross, Talbert House, Planned Parenthood, and Beech Acres Parenting Center.
