

Connie Hinitz

Volunteer Consultant
Manager, Volunteer Services
Consultant Since: 2011

OneSource Center
936 Dalton Avenue
Cincinnati, OH 45203
Telephone: 513.554.4944

Professional History

- OneSource Center for Nonprofit Excellence (formerly Executive Service Corps of Cincinnati)
- Leadership Scholars, Inc.
- The Jewish Foundation of Cincinnati
- Jewish Federation of Cincinnati

Education

- M.A., Community Planning, University of Cincinnati
- M.A., Geography, University of Cincinnati
- B.A., Elected Studies, University of Minnesota

Connie is a philanthropic sector management specialist with more than 40 years' experience creating and implementing comprehensive nonprofit initiatives. She is OneSource's Manager of Volunteer Services and past Director of Philanthropic Initiatives for Leadership Scholars, Inc. Prior to joining ESCC, she was Administrator of The Jewish Foundation of Cincinnati. She also served as the Jewish Federation of Cincinnati's Director of Planning and Allocations for thirteen years.

As a board member of Northern Hills Synagogue, Connie is heavily involved with Create Your Jewish Legacy. Connie's past civic responsibilities include serving on the Hamilton County Government Reform Commission, Amberley Village Ad Hoc Finance and Long-Range Planning Committees, and the Hamilton County Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services Board. She volunteers with the World Affairs Council of Cincinnati & Northern Kentucky, which has honored her as a citizen diplomat.

OneSource Center Experience

Connie is part of OneSource's training faculty and assists with curriculum design. She ran leadership development workshops for ADVANCE, Planned Parenthood of Southwest Ohio, People's Liberty, SCORE of Dayton and Freestore/Foodbank. Connie also assists on strategic planning, program evaluation, fund development, stakeholder interviewing, and coaching projects.