

Bob Wuerdeman

Volunteer Consultant
Consultant Since: 2009

OneSource Center
936 Dalton Avenue
Cincinnati, OH 45203
Telephone: 513.554.4944

Professional History

- Procter & Gamble

Education

- B.S., Industrial and Systems Engineering, Ohio University
- M.B.A., Management, University of Cincinnati

Bob retired as Global Physical Distribution Project Manager of Procter and Gamble after more than 37 years. His primary areas of expertise are in program design and evaluation, project management, strategic planning, mentoring as well as distribution/logistics/customer service operations.

Bob volunteers with the Dan Beard Council, Boy Scouts of America; St. Timothy's Episcopal Church; and Great Parks of Hamilton County. He is also a member of the Financial Administration Committee of ChangingGears.

OneSource Center Experience

Bob's assignments have included one-on-one and small team mentoring for operations planning/improvement, strategic thinking/planning, personal/organizational development and project management. Most recently he served as a stakeholder interviewer on a project for Cincinnati Concours d'Elegance. He has led and worked on projects with the Cincinnati Public Schools, Free Store Food Bank, Great Parks of Hamilton County, and Talbert House. Bob has been a coach in the Nonprofit Leadership Institute and EXCEL.