Chris is a versatile financial executive and operational strategist whose thirty years of experience includes startups and turnarounds, mergers and acquisitions and an understanding of both the for-profit and nonprofit sectors. A finance and accounting consultant, Chris's clients include Grandin Solutions, Hollywood Casino and Grasshopper Investments. Chris was the inaugural CFO and COO of the University of Cincinnati Research Institute (UCRI), where he put financial policies and processes into place. At an earlier stage of his career, he brought his project management and accounting background to several financial institutions, including Fifth Third Bank. Chris also is an adjunct professor for multiple colleges, teaching at the undergrad, graduate and post-graduate levels.

Chris is the Vice President, Finance for the local chapter of the Project Management Institute. His leadership responsibilities extend to Authentic Leadership Cincinnati where he is Vice President, Member Relations.

OneSource Experience

Assigned to Tender Mercies, Chris assisted in financial and budgeting analyses at Tender Mercies. He also led a strategic planning project for the Islamic Center of Greater Cincinnati. For several years, Chris has been an EXCEL coach.
