Tom has thirty-one years of diverse financial experience, including twenty-four years in internal audit (nineteen as chief auditor). His general audit experience includes stints with service, software, and two manufacturing companies. His specific audit exposure includes financial reporting, operational, and IT audits, as well as review of SOX controls.

Tom most recently worked for OPW as their Director of Internal Audit and Chief Compliance Officer. Prior to that, he worked for SENCO Products as their Chief Internal Auditor and with SDRC as an Internal Auditor and SAP Support Analyst.

Tom's volunteer experiences include serving in several roles, including President, with the Greater Cincinnati chapter of the Information Systems Audit and Control Association (ISACA). Tom also was the Research Chairperson for the Institute of Internal Auditors Board of Directors, and Chairperson for the Cintel Credit Union Supervisory Committee.

OneSource Experience

As a new volunteer, Tom looks forward to being part of business solutions projects and assisting with leadership development training.
