

Rob Baker

Volunteer Consultant
Consultant Since: 2022

OneSource
936 Dalton Avenue
Cincinnati, Oh 45203
Telephone: 513.554.4944

Professional History

- Procter & Gamble

Education

- M.S., Statistics, Purdue University
- B.S., Mathematics with Statistics
Minor, Rochester Institute of Technology

Rob worked at Procter & Gamble for 34 years, leading groups of statisticians and data scientists in support of corporate research and design objectives. In addition to his expertise in statistics and leading a technical group, Rob has advanced skills in consumer research analytics, clinical research statistics, and technical recruiting.

Outside of P&G, Rob has done volunteer work with the Cincinnati Tennis Foundation, Lebanon Food Pantry, and the Ronald McDonald House.

OneSource Experience

As a new volunteer, Rob looks forward to being part of business solutions projects and assisting with leadership development coaching and training.