Brigitte is a passionate, dedicated, experienced and results-driven fundraising professional. She currently is Director of Transformational Giving at United Way of Greater Cincinnati, where she manages a team of gift officers who are responsible for the portfolios of UWGC's major donors. She also is the staff liaison for the United Way Foundation Board. Prior to that, Brigitte worked for several years as the chief fundraiser for both Mercy McAuley High School and McAuley High School. In that role, she oversaw all aspects of the school's advancement efforts, including annual fund drive, major gifts solicitation, and planned giving initiatives. Additionally, Brigitte has worked as a fundraising professional for the Center for Hearing & Speech and the Contemporary Art Museum in St. Louis.

Brigitte is an experienced instructor having taught courses on the arts at several institutions of higher education.

Brigitte presently serves as a board member and chair of the fundraising committee for Mission Partners Guatemala. She also volunteers with the Jimmy Health House and St. Vincent de Paul.

OneSource Experience

As a new volunteer, Brigitte looks forward to being part of business services and board development projects, as well as assisting with leadership development training.
