Education

- University of Cincinnati College
Conservatory of Music

Carol is a human resources specialist with expertise in employee and labor relations. Prior to retirement, she was Operating Vice President, Employee Relations at Federated Department Stores.

Having attended the University of Cincinnati College Conservatory of Music, Carol is especially committed to the arts. She served on the board of the Kentucky Symphony Orchestra and Cincinnati Choral Society. She has volunteered with the Fine Arts Fund and served on the HR Committee of the United Way. Carol also is deeply concerned about environmental issues, having served on the boards of the Campbell and Boone Conservancies.

OneSource Center Experience

Carol assists clients with succession planning, management skills training, board development, organization structure and strategic planning. As a coach, she has worked both with EXCEL participants as well as senior executives. Most recently Carol advised the talent management component of the United Methodist Church Food Ministry project.
