- OneSource Center for Nonprofit Excellence
- Northlich
- Earle Palmer Brown Advertising

Education

- B.A., Journalism, University of Iowa

Alyson Best comes to OneSource Center with extensive nonprofit, event planning, volunteer management, marketing and account team experience. She began her career as a reporter and moved to account management in two public relations firms, working with clients such as Proctor & Gamble's Foodservice Division, Fifth Third Bank, Graydon and with the Brick Institute of America. She led OneSource Center's marketing efforts for five years and started ACB Consulting, LLC in 1993.

An active volunteer, Alyson has led numerous youth programs and fundraisers and chaired Anderson High School Band's largest fundraiser for a decade, an event that involved over 1000 people annually. She is currently chair of her church's outreach committee and is on church council. In her spare time, she loves hiking, adventuring, preparing gourmet meals, and creating lasting memories with family and friends.

OneSource Experience

As a OneSource volunteer, Alyson plans to focus on supporting OneSource Center's marketing and communications program.
