Julie is an innovative and creative HR professional with broad experience in creating and driving engaging, healthy cultures that lead to successful business results. She is a passionate coach with the ability to help people at all levels thrive in their career and lives, resulting in engagement and retention for the company and personal success for the team member.

Julie previously worked as the Chief People Officer for ConstructConnect, a leading software as a service (SaaS) organization serving the construction industry. In that role, she successfully led the cultural and legal integration of nine companies during a seven-year period, increasing the company from 250 employees to 1,000. She also instituted an in-house Learning and Development university and corresponding Learning Management system for all team members. Additionally, she designed an employment brand and social media strategy to attract hard to find talent in the Tech and Sales industry.

Prior to ConstructConnect, Julie served as the Vice President of Human Resources at Interbrand and, before that, at JBM Envelope, as well as at Commonwealth Hotels. Julie is the co-founder and leader of a program focused on helping individuals reach their full potential in career and life. She also has served as a consultant to the Save the Animals Foundation.

OneSource Experience

As a OneSource volunteer, Julie looks forward to working on leadership development training, as well as coaching.
