EJ is an honest, genuine, and positive leader who approaches any task with a passion and fervor to do what is right for the team, the customer, and the business. His expertise resides in leading a talented team to create and deliver strategic partnerships, live events, and customer experiences. EJ is effective at building talented teams through collaboration, humility, and vulnerability, while solving the most challenging business problems in bold and impactful ways.

EJ currently works as a consultant advising business clients spanning sustainability, creative services, venture capital, and more on strategic planning, growth, events strategy, and leadership. EJ previously worked nearly a decade at Textron Aviation in several roles. His most recent position there was as Director of Global Events and Partnerships. In that role, he facilitated the creative strategy and execution of over 175 virtual and in-person events per year. He also launched a major collaboration with the US Olympic Ski and Snowboard Team. EJ founded the organization's LGBT Employee Resource Group while at Textron.

Outside of work, EJ has volunteered with Junior Achievement as a 5th grade economic teacher and is currently working with students at Great Oaks as an ESOL volunteer.

OneSource Experience

As a OneSource volunteer, EJ looks forward to working on strategic planning, board development, and business solutions projects.
